

KAW 2022 Christmas/New Year Cultural Program Rules & Guidelines for participants

Due to potentially changing Covid conditions, program guidelines will be updated, and all participants will be contacted 1-2 weeks prior to the program date with the updated guidelines We will be following all COVID guidelines and mandates by government and local bodies.

We would like to invite all participants who are interested in performing for the KAW 2022 Christmas/New Year program. Please go through these rules carefully and contact KAW

Program committee

(kaweventconnect2021@gmail.com) with subject line: Christmas/New Year 2022 for any questions or clarifications.

Program guidelines

1. All participants must be a KAW member with active membership. You can take new KAW membership/renew existing membership online at <https://kaow.org/account.html>.
2. All Programs must register here <https://kaow.org/registerprogram.html> & participants must register here <https://kaow.org/registerparticipant.html> before December 12 2021. We cannot permit any late entries. Access to these pages require active membership.
3. Programs may be performed on-stage or pre-recorded. It is highly recommended to use the pre-recorded option for kids programs. Pre-recorded programs should be sent by January 14th 11.59 PM PST. (More details on this will be sent to all registered participants). Recorded programs will be aired in Youtube on January 23rd from 4pm to 6pm.

4. To conclude the event day on time, there will be a limit on the total number of programs. The programs will be accepted on a first come first serve based of registration. KAW program committee reserves the right to make any exception to this rule based on circumstances.

5. Each individual is allowed to participate only in maximum of two programs. It can be one solo program and one group program or two group programs. Two solo performances are not allowed. Please let the program committee know if you like to have an exception to this limit, well in advance. The KAW program committee reserves the rights to grant or reject these requests.

6. Maximum duration limit for a program is 6 minutes for group performance and 4 minutes for solo. Please contact the program committee if your program requires more time than recommended. KAW program committee reserves the rights to grant or reject these requests.

7. KAW program committee reserves the rights to choose between group events vs single entry events, if the program registration exceeds the allowed max limit. This recommendation is to provide opportunities to more KAW members to perform during our events.

8. KAW reserves the right to decide program order and is completely decided by the KAW program committee. Please contact the program committee if you have any requests pertaining to the program order. KAW program committee reserves the rights to grant or reject these requests.
